Dearest Mother & Daddy:

I haven't got the mail for today as yet, and don't know if I have a letter or not. I am going to school now, and learning something that I can use in civilian life. I am sure enjoying it alot. I am not in the office anymore, but like the work I am doing now a lot better. I am learning something worthwhile.

It is not so hot here today, and is real nice. I hear from Lottie nearly every day, and wish you would write as often. Hope you send me the things I asked for soon. Have you received any mail from me? Let me know the first day you receive a letter from me, and also when the cablegram gets to you. Right?

There is nothing new here, and nothing that I have done lately. I have written to Sam Goldblatt, who is also here in New Guinea, but have not heard from him as yet. He is the boy that I roomed with in Montgomery when I was working down there. Remember him? I believe you know his mother. Right?

Be good, and write soon.

Love,

Harold
